

THOMAS AUSTIN HOME

Built--1901 (brick)

Address--427 East Fifth North

Present owners--Wesley/Geraldine Dalley

Thomas Austin and several brothers formed Austin Brothers, a phenomenally successful sheep and cattle business. For many years after Austin's death his home was an apartment house. Wes and Geraldine Dalley have been restoring this wonderful home for the past fifteen years. The house, listed on the National Historic Homes Register, was the site of several scenes in the 1987 movie, Promised Land.
